Makenzie Stone to Lead Wellness Department at EMH Wellness Center

New director to move wellness programs and services forward.

EASTLAND, Texas (Sept. 28, 2015) – Eastland Memorial Hospital (EMH) has announced the recent appointment of Makenzie Stone as supervisor of the Earl and Billye Bradley Wellness Center.

“Makenzie is an exciting addition to our team who has the knowledge and leadership skills that is consistent with our vision here at Eastland Memorial.” explains Ted Matthews, CEO of EMH. “From problem solving and critical analysis, to passion and compassion, I believe she has much to contribute to our organization.”

The Earl and Billye Bradley Wellness Center brings to Eastland County many valuable resources to transform the health and wellness of the entire community. Inside this comprehensive facility, individuals will discover cardio equipment with state-of-the-art entertainment system; indoor and outdoor walking tracks; a complete array of strength training equipment; and regularly scheduled exercise and fitness classes.

Ms. Stone recently completed her Bachelor of Science degree from McMurry University, where she was recognized for excellence by her inclusion on the Dean’s List. Her professional experience includes executive administration and customer service roles.

“With a personal interest and participation in athletics, I can honestly say that the Bradley Wellness Center is a fantastic place for athletes or someone who simply wants to stay active,” Stone says. “I’m excited about my new role with the Wellness Center and look forward to helping progress the facility forward and continuing to provide valuable programs and services.”

Membership to the Wellness Center is affordable, starting at $33 a month for individuals. Plans for couples and families are also available to make access even more obtainable.

For more information about the programs and services available at the Earl and Billye Bradley Wellness Center, please call 254-631-5233, or visit www.eastlandmemorial.com.
